

Genocide? What genocide?

JamesBradley.com

I was in my twenties in the seventies. Now I'm in my seventies in the twenties and being whiplashed into shocking 21st Century news.

More Genocide. Palestine. What's new?

Senator Bernie Sanders is the longest-serving independent in the history of Congress. Bernie writes, “Over the last two years, Israel has not simply defended itself against Hamas. Instead, it has waged an all-out war against the entire Palestinian people. Many legal experts have now concluded that Israel is committing genocide in Gaza. The International Association of Genocide Scholars concluded that ‘Israel’s policies and actions in Gaza meet the legal definition of genocide.’ The Israeli human rights groups B’Tselem and Physicians for Human Rights-Israel have reached the same conclusion, as have international groups like Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch.

Just yesterday, an independent commission of experts appointed by the United Nations echoed this finding. These experts concluded that: ‘It is clear that there is an intent to destroy the Palestinians in Gaza through acts that meet the criteria set forth in the Genocide Convention. ‘Out of a population of 2.2 million Palestinians in Gaza, Israel has now killed some 65,000 people and wounded roughly 164,000. The full toll is likely much higher, with many thousands of bodies buried under the rubble. A leaked classified Israeli military database indicates that 83% of those killed have been civilians. More than 18,000 children have been killed, including 12,000 aged 12 or younger.”

If you want to read about the first time the West ignored its genocide, you'll want to reserve your copy of Precious Freedom.

The first genocide brought into American living rooms.

Maybe if we had paid attention to the Russell Tribunal, organised in 1966 by Bertrand Russell--British philosopher and Nobel Prize winner--we wouldn't still be genociding? The tribunal investigated and evaluated American genocide in Vietnam.

Nine-year-old Do Van Ngoc exhibits injuries from napalm in Vietnam.

You can read in Precious Freedom all the juicy details of American genocide in Vietnam, which the Reverend Martin Luther King compared to Nazi Germany. Martin got shot for saying that. At the tribunal, Justice Robert H. Jackson--Chief Prosecutor, Nuremberg War Crimes Trials—stated: “If certain acts and violations of treaties are crimes, they are crimes whether the United States does them or whether Germany does them.” For some reason, they didn’t shoot Justice Jackson.

The Russell Tribunal dealt with many questions, for example:

- 1 Has the United States Government (and the Governments of Australia, New Zealand and South Korea) committed acts of aggression according to international law?
- 2 Has the American army made use of or experimented with new weapons or weapons forbidden by the laws of war?

- 3 Has there been bombardment of targets of a purely civilian character, for example hospitals, schools, sanatoria, dams, etc., and on what scale has this occurred?
- 4 Have Vietnamese prisoners been subjected to inhuman treatment forbidden by the laws of war and, in particular, to torture or mutilation? Have there been unjustified reprisals against the civilian population, in particular, execution of hostages?
- 5 Have forced labour camps been created, has there been deportation of the population or other acts tending to the extermination of the population and which can be characterised juridically as acts of genocide?

The Tribunal stated that its conclusions were:

- 1 Has the Government of the United States committed acts of aggression against Vietnam under the terms of international law? Yes (unanimously).
- 2 Has there been, and if so, on what scale, bombardment of purely civilian targets, for example, hospitals, schools, medical establishments, dams, etc? Yes (unanimously). We also find unanimously, with one abstention, that the government of the United States of America is guilty of repeated violations of the sovereignty, neutrality and territorial integrity of Cambodia, that it is guilty of attacks against the civilian population of a certain number of Cambodian towns and villages.^{[1][SEP]}
- 3 Have the governments of Australia, New Zealand and South Korea been accomplices of the United States in the aggression against Vietnam in violation of international law? Yes (unanimously).
- 4 Is the Government of Thailand guilty of complicity in the aggression committed by the United States Government against Vietnam? Yes (unanimously).
- 5 Is the Government of the Philippines guilty of complicity in the aggression committed by the United States Government against Vietnam? Yes (unanimously).
- 6 Is the Government of Japan guilty of complicity in the aggression committed by the United States Government against Vietnam? Yes, (by 8 Votes to 3).
- 7 Has the United States Government committed aggression against the people of Laos, according to the definition provided by international law? Yes (unanimously).

- 8 Have the armed forces of the United States used or experimented with weapons prohibited by the laws of war? Yes (unanimously).
- 9 Have prisoners of war captured by the armed forces of the United States been subjected to treatment prohibited by the laws of war? Yes (unanimously).
- 10 Have the armed forces of the United States subjected the civilian population to inhuman treatment prohibited by international law? Yes (unanimously).
- 11 Is the United States Government guilty of genocide against the people of Vietnam? Yes (unanimously).

'We are defending ourselves ... It is the United States that is in danger in Saigon. This means that their first aim is military: it is to encircle Communist China, the major obstacle to their expansionism. Thus, they will not let south-east Asia escape. America has put men in power in Thailand, it controls part of Laos and threatens to invade Cambodia. But these conquests will be useless if the US has to face a free Vietnam with thirty-one million united people.'

ynetglobal Finance Minister confirms for the first time that the utopian plan for rebuilding the Gaza Strip, which was revealed on Ynet and is reportedly "circulating" in the Trump administration, and that Israel is in discussions with the US on its cut: 'We paid a lot of money for the war. We need to work out how we share percentages on the land. We've already done the demolition phase'

Finance Minister Bezalel Smotrich on Wednesday addressed the question of "the day after" in Gaza, saying the territory should be turned into a "real estate bonanza." Speaking at the Urban Renewal Summit hosted by the Real Estate Center and Madlan 2025, Smotrich revealed that he had "already begun negotiations with the Americans" over such a plan. His remarks mark the first official confirmation Get ready for Precious Freedom revealing the root of America's 2025 problems.

James Bradley journeyed to Iwo Jima and returned with Flags of Our Fathers and now ventures to Vietnam and brings us Precious Freedom, where he reveals that, if we'd known what happened in the 1960s in Vietnam, American mothers would never have sent their children to Iraq and Afghanistan. The truth is the best vaccination against great lies.
